Chapter 1/1

Author's Notes:
Inspired by something Dave said in an interview before the 2006 Grammys.

"It's like in Highlander, where they sense one of their own kind enter the room, only no one senses me anymore. Except you."

Tré flashed an impish grin at the sometime-drummer. "Once you've had wood in your hands, dude, you don't ever lose that."

Dave laughed. "Is that what you call what we're doing?" His leisurely caresses grew more purposeful.

Breath hitching, Tré returned the favour, curling nimble fingers around Dave's cock and coaxing it back to aching hardness; counterpoint to the other man's sure rhythm. He leaned close to whisper in Dave's ear.

"Nah. I'd call this the Quickening."
